'To Love a Child' . . . and a party

NANCY REGAN

To Love A Child, Reagan's second book, will be launched Tuesday with the same intensity the first lady feels for the book's subject--the Foster Grandparent Program.

The program has intrigued her since she first saw it in action in California in 1967. "I couldn't wait to tell Ronnie about it," she writes in the book's introduction, the only part actually written by her. She says the 15 years she has been involved have been like "watching a child grow."

Many of the 33 foster grandparent volunteers whose stories are told in the book published by Bobbs-Merrill will be at the White House next week.

Nancy Reagan wrote the forward, the only personal touch in the book, telling how she "adored" her own (maternal) grandmother, Anne. Her adoptive grandparents, the parents of the late Dr. Loyal Davis, were equally important in her formative years. She spent summers with them producing plays in their backyard in Galesburg, Ill.

From 2,000 elderly people serving 6,000 children in 1967, the program has grown to embrace 6,000 foster grandparents and 54,000 children. Those chosen for profiles include some courageous characters.

Needs Of New Poor Burdens Cities.

The recession and federal budget cuts are breeding a "new poor" class of Americans, the U.S. Conference of Mayors says in a report to be released today.

The situation is expected to worsen as the growing number of unemployed and poor further strain the cities' abilities to provide human services.

The report is based on a survey of 55 cities from June 30, 1980, to July 1, 1981.

The "new poor" are people who are losing their jobs, exhaustine unemployement benefits and losing their homes, according to the survey.

As a result of federal budget cuts, the report says, less than half the people eligible for such federal aid as child care and job training receive help.

Of the cities participating in the survey, 22 reported that health programs were affected most severely by budget cuts, 20 said employment and training, 15 said services to senior citizens and 13 said energy assistance or day care.

Many of the new poor have been forced for the first time to turn to the government for help. And they are finding it difficult, the report says.

Officials say the new poor are being troubled by psychological distress, alcoholism and violent behavior "among those unable to cope with having to seek help from local agencies."

People in the city are now living under bridges and in cars, tents and trailers. Many families are losing their homes.

Officials report problems with transients living in cars, searching through garbage cans and hanging around office building. Vagrancy has increased, with trasients living in cars of freeways and parks.

Home Mortgage Rates Cut to 12.5%.

Government-backed mortgage interest rates were slashed to 12.5 percent Tuesday, and four major banks cut their prime lending rates to the lowest level in 25 months.

The average mortgage cost on an existing single-family home dropped in the third quarter of 1982 for the first time since 1976, according to a 15-city study by the National Association of Realtors.

The drop in the government's interest rate ceiling from 13.5 percent -- marked the first time since August 1980 it has been that low. The banks cut the prime -- the rate they charge their most credit-worthy customers -- a full percentage point to 12 percent.

The lower ceiling for government-backed mortgages will put housing within the reach of 1.6 million more families who couldn't afford loans at the 13.5 percent rate, said Philip Abrams, an assistant secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

A combination of falling mortgage rates and softening home prices pushed down monthly mortgage payments on the average existing single-family house to $838 in the third quarter from $864 six months ago and $836 a year ago, the Realtors' study showed.

That is the first time the rising spiral of housing costs showed a break since mortgage and housing costs started rising in 1976, said Realtor Vice President Kenneth Kerin.

YOUTHS TO COLLECT CAN FOOD FOR THE NEEDY ON HALLOWEEN

The community service youths will be collecting can food for the needy which will also benefit the food banks. Please turn your porch lights on and support the community service youths.

HALLOWEEN

Due to the recent Federal Cuts, many families will not have funds to purchase candies for the many treat-or-treaters that bang on their doors. Often no treat results in a trick, ... harrassment, property damage, and occasional personal injury. For the disadvantaged, low income family, it is an even greater problem. To minimize these types of behavior, the Eastside Community Church is sponsoring a SAFE Halloween Festivity at the EASTSIDE NEIGHBOORHOOD CENTER, E. 44th & E. Q Street, Tacoma, Washington.

Some of the Activities are: apple dunking, dart balloons, cake walk, hay ride, pie eating contest, and plenty of good food.

Date is October 30th, 12:00 noon to 8:00 p.m.

Benefits safe for young workers, study says

WASHINGTON — Social Security benefits under the current program will keep up with inflation well into the next century, according to a study released Tuesday.

That's contrary to some critics' contentions that younger workers will not receive as much in benefits when they retire as they paid in taxes.

But as workers now 18 to 36 years old retire, taxes to support the program will have to rise rapidly, said the study by the Brookings Institution.

COMMUNITY NEWS

MINORITY VOTING POWER

The black vote has been described as a "sleeping giant" whenever elections are the topic of discussion. It's time for that sleeping giant to wake up.

There is no task of greater immediate importance for the black community than the job of getting every eligible voter registered and voting. That is especially important in 1982 for a number of reasons.

First, a strong black voter turnout in this November's elections will send a powerful message to leaders of both parties that they'll have to adjust their policies to attract black voters in 1984. That crucial Presidential race effectively begins the day after this year's election.

Second, the stakes are high in 1982. Every member of the House of Representatives, a third of the Senate and many governors' offices are on the block.

Third, this year's vote is being seen as an indication of America's acceptance of current policies of both parties. Observers will be reading the results for signs of the political costs of high unemployment, rising poverty and shrinking government. The black vote takes on greater importance as the media and the politicians scan it for signs of apathy or activism.

Fourth, new coalitions are emerging between blacks, other minorities, women and labor. The black influence on those coalitions directly depends on demonstrating power at the polls.

Finally, whatever the election results, the policy cards are in for reshuffling. Big decisions are waiting to be made -- on future budgets, the fate of domestic programs, New Federalism, social security, and other. The bigger the black vote, the better chance blacks have of being at the table when the cards are cut.

The stumbling block to higher levels of black voter participation has always been apathy due to feelings of powerlessness and the realities of poverty. Many people feel their vote doesn't count, and many others are simply too busy with the daily struggle to survive to participate in the electoral process.

But powerlessness and poverty are the reasons why all eligible black people should register and vote. A large black vote means political power, along with the opportunity to do something about changing policies that lead to poverty and unemployment.

P.N.B. DESIGNATES OCT. 23 AS SUPERMARKET SATURDAY

Tacoma shoppers will have a chance to help their area's hungry while shopping at participating Safeway Stores on October 23, which has been designated statewide by Pacific Northwest Bell as "Supermarket Saturday."

From 9:00 am to 5:00 pm on "Supermarket Saturday," members of Pacific Northwest Bell's Tacoma Community Relations team will ask shoppers entering the store to purchase an extra food item or two for donation. Shoppers can then donate the food as they leave the store. All food collected that day will be delivered to Tacoma's Fish Food Bank.

Mary Kay Koval, PNB project coordinator, said monetary contributions also will be welcome. Those donating money will be given "Community Harvest" buttons. The money will also be given to the Fish Food Bank for food purchases.

"Many people would like to help the hungry, but they wither can't locate or make it to a collection site," Koval said. "We hope 'Supermarket Saturday' will make it easy for Tacoma people to make their donations."

Participating Safeway Stores in Tacoma include the following:

1112 South "M" Street
10111 Gravelly Lake Drive S.W.
1302 South 38th
2411 North Proctor
111 South 112th Street
620 Sixth Avenue

The Al Davies Boys Club Football teams looked good last week. The G.Q. Bombers remained undefeated by hanging the Eastside Boys Club 18-0! The 6th Grade Hornets stung an awesome Lakewood 12-0. The 7th Grade Cowboys played a hard-fought game but lost to undefeated Bethel, 0-7.

The G.Q. Bombers are still the team to beat the Rookie Division. The Bombers look like they will be champions if they win the two remaining games. Rico Davis broke away with a 60 Yard touchdown from scrimmage. Sungura Mobley bounced back with a 40 Yard touchdown and Rico Davis scratched and clawed his way for his second touchdown. The G.Q. Bombers face the Lakewood Lumberjacks on October 23, 1982 at 2:00pm.

The Hornets will face a stubborn Ft. Lewis on October 23, 1982 at 12:30 . The Hornets are still in the race for the division title. The Hornets must beat Ft. Lewis in order to make their division a three-way tie. Coach Jimmy Ervin says," Ft. Lewis has won the championship in their division for the past two years. What we need to do is stop the run and generate our offense to win the ballgame. Our defense has only been scored once all season which should make this an interesting contest." Coach Mike Clark says, "We are going to be ready. Our guys are fired up so the Falcons better watch out. I smell victory in this weeks practice sessions and our boys won't loose again."

The 7th Grade Cowboys are wrapping up their season. The Cowboys have struggled their way through a tough season and are playing hard for the pride of the Al Davies Boys Club. Last weeks contest against Bethel showed an enormous amount of unity in the Cowboys. A round of applause to coaches Malcom Davis, Butch Batie, Matt Doss, and Ivan Johnson. Next year these coaches will take on the rookie recruits from the flag football teams.

Flag Football has started its season. Anyone interested in it call Rodney Clark at 383-2731 Ext. #27.

President hints at 2nd term

WASHINGTON — President Reagan doesn't like to leave a job undone and probably will seek another term in 1984 if the American people want him to, an aide said Thursday.

White House spokesman Larry Speakes said, "The president hopes his record will be such that the people will want him to carry on."

Speakes' comments were the strongest indicator yet of Reagan's plans.

The latest attention to Reagan's plans stems from a remark Wednesday by Vice President George Bush during a campaign stop in Connecticut.

Bush said that he is convinced Reagan should run and that the president should announce his intentions for 1984 "very soon."

Income gaps closing from coast to coast

For richer, for poorer, it doesn't make so much difference where you live anymore.

From region to region of the United States, the income gap is closing, the U.S. Commerce Department reported Thursday.

By the mid-1970s the gaps leveled off, indicating that Americans, the way they work, and how much they earn have become more similar from region to region.

The Commerce Department's study compares per capita income trends from 1929 to 1981 and shows the closing income gap is due primarily to a more even nationwide distribution of industry.

From 1929 to 1981, average per capita income rose from $697 in 1929 to $10,491 in 1981.

Economists use 1929, the economy's last peak year before the Depression, as a reference point for comparisons. In 1929, regions ranged from 47 percent below the national average in the Southeast to 38 percent above in the Mideast. By 1981 the range was 14 percent below in the Southeast to 11 percent above in the Far West.

States in the Plains, Rocky Mountains, Southeast and Southwest in 1929 were well below the average in per capita income. But they've moved up.

Minnesota, Kansas, Texas, Wyoming and Colorado, all below average in 1929, are now above the average. Most others have moved much closer to the middle range.

MATTHEW 5:
THE BEATITUDES.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: For they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

For verily I say unto you, Til heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the Kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.

Housing bite gets smaller

After years of an ever-growing appetite, the monthly mortgage payment is gobbling up less of the family pocketbook.

Because of a combination of falling mortgage rates and softening home prices, the average U.S. family that bought an existing single-family house this fall spent 36.5 percent of its income to make a monthly mortgage payment, down from 38.1 percent six months ago, the National Association of Realtors found in a survey of 15 cities.

Through the early 1970s, families devoted 20 percent of their budget to mortgage payments. When the spiral of rising interest rates and housing costs started in the mid-1970s, that percentage grew steadily to the 38.1 percent figure, said Kenneth Kerin, vice president for economics and research for the Realtors.

BAHAI'I NEWS

Tacoma, Wa., October 19, 1982--The Tacoma Baha'i Community will be commemorating the 56th anniversary of the visit to the Pacific North West in November of 1926 by Queen Marie of Rumania. To commemorate the occasion, the Tacoma Baha'i Community will be making a presentation to the Maryhill Museum of Fine Arts located 70 miles South of Yakima of highway 97. Included in the presentation will be numerous books, published articles, references and letters between Her and Baha'i Leaders of the time. The presentation will be held at the museum sight on Wednesday, November 3rd at 1:00 p.m. The public is invited.

The Maryhill museum was built by Sam Hill around the turn of the century. He named the museum after his daughter, Mary Hill and made arrangements for Queen Marie of Rumania, an early member of the Baha'i Faith, to dedicate the museum. The museum now houses most of the relics left over from Queen Marie's reign. Included in the collection are several icon's, the original dress worn by Queen Marie at her coronation, and a jewelers model of the crown worn by the Queen.

On Queen Marie's trip to Washington, she took the train North to Blain Washington on the Candian-U.S. border to witness the Peace Porthole or Peace Arch as it is now referred to which was also built by Sam Hill. To this day, the Peace Arch symbolizes the longest continous open border (including Alaska) in the World.

On Queen Marie's visit to the Pacific Northwest, she stopped off in Portland, Longview, Seattle, Blain and Tacoma where she christened the Queen Marie Rose, a product of the hybridizing skill of Frank Chervenka of Sumner. For more information or details please feel free to call either the Baha'i phone at 474-8029 or the Tacoma Baha'i Public Affairs Office at 752-5399 after 5:00 p.m.
